

Airfare update

Northwest Orient Airlines has a buy now, pay later offer for tickets to be used to California, Florida and Arizona between January 9 and April 22, 1984. If you purchase your ticket before December 15, 1983 you can avoid any fare increases during the peak travel season.

When purchasing your tickets early, you may use any valid participating credit card and your card company will not be billed until 10 days prior to your travel. You don't have to pay until after your trip, and may take the ticket home with you the day you make the reservation.

If the Northwest Orient fare on which you are ticketed is reduced before your trip, you'll be eligible for the lower fare; however, re-ticketing will be required and certain restrictions may be in effect.

Participating credit cards are American Express, Carte Blanche, Diners Club, MasterCard (Interbank), Northwest Orient On-Line, Northwest Airlines UATP and Visa.

If not used, tickets are fully refundable. See Evey Bousson, Laura Iseler Or Terry Reising in travel for Northwest Orient credit card deferred payment form and more information.
